We have been thinking of you and praying for your recovery. Keep pushing forward. You can do it!
God bless.
- Valerie Bernstein | Aug 1, 2020
Dave- Bruce and I feel so good to have this connection with you. Yes, we read your letter and acknowledge this "mountain" you have to climb- and believe me, we feel you have all the traits needed to get you to the top! - your caring and warm nature alone is wonderful - top that off with your strength and determination and it is sure to keep you in good stead. Know that we want to follow your progress and that our hopes for you will not waver!
Most Fondly, Valerie & Bruce B.

"So far as I can see, friend Sancho, these are not knights, but base folk of low birth. I mention it because this means that lawfully you can aid me in taking due vengeance for the insult offered to Rocinante before our eyes."

"What the devil vengeance can we take," answered Sancho, "if they are more than twenty, and we are no more than two, or, indeed, perhaps not more than one and a half?"

"I count for a hundred," replied Don Quixote, and without more words, he drew his sword and attacked the Yanguesans. Excited and impelled by the example of his master, Sancho did the same." ---Don Quixote, Chapter XV

David,

I was shocked to say the least when I read Ric's e-mail on Monday. I think of you as a friend as much as I do an advisor. I enjoy our conversations ranging from finance and business to sports and the Ravens. In keeping with your request to keep it light - it looks like you will be having as unique of a 2020 as professional sports - adapting to a season like no other. But just like professional sports are beating the odds with MLB resuming play later this week - I am confident you will be back in the financial stadium and ready for fans (clients) in the not too distant future. Stay strong, keep climbing, and reach the summit!!! You and your family will remain in my prayers. If there is anything I can do as a friend don't ever hesitate to ask.

David,
Thanks for these updates, I really appreciate them. Your analogy of a mountain climb brought a smile to my face. All uphill, challenging every step of the way, not knowing what the next step brings or whether or not you make it to the top. WOW

As my dad always told me in situations like this, "ain't no step for a stepper". Keep the faith with a smile on your face and a song in your heart and we'll talk again when the climb is done.

Hi David

Cancer messed with the wrong guy! You have a positive attitude; an "I Can Do It!" spirit; and the fight and courage to beat this thing down! Mac and I (and a lot of other folks who love you) are in your corner! You are in our thoughts and prayers!

By the way, you know we love hiking - so we will hike this mountain by your side.

Much Love to You!

Bonnie and Mac

Steve Hammond | Jul 21, 2020

David,

After you beat this, let's take a victory hike up to Chimney Rock! My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family!

God Bless,

Hi David

I sent an email to your work address before I saw this site.

Our family is sending much love. You have been more than a financial advisor. You have been a friend, always interested in hearing about our lives and sharing your family adventures too. Financial stuff was never my forte but you have made it more personal and enjoyable experience.

Please know that I will be thinking of you daily and sending love to you and your family.

You are a very special guy!!!

With much love to you and your family

You Can Fight This!

Lynn Bartsch | Jul 20, 2020

David,

As everyone would say to Bryan 39 years ago "This can't be happening to such a nice man," but it is. You can beat this as he did.

Your attitude and laughter will be your best medicine but the MOST IMPORTANT advise I can give to you and your family is: YOU COME FIRST. They need to keep strong and positive. You concentrate on healing yourself!

Bryan told me something years after being cured. Every morning when he woke up and all threw the long months of chemo he would tell himself, "I am going to beat this".

Never give up, keep smiling and laughing.

Besides I owe you a golf lesson.

All our love,

Bryan and Lynn

Maine Memories... It's a gorgeous azure blue day as you and your girls hit the trail above Seal Harbor. A cool crisp wind propels you as you traverse the mossy lichen covered rocks. The intoxicating fragrance of pine permeates the air. If you're lucky you'll spot grey seals sunbathing on the rocks below. You inhale deeply and savour the moment.

Hi David! First of all, we wanted to say our prayers are going up for you and your beautiful family. You've got this! God is with you! Lean on Him for strength and peace. We're here for you guys if/when you need anything! Just say the word! Love and miss you!

We also wanted to send you a quick note of thanks. Because of your great advice, I (Kristi) took that big leap and left my job June 5 (and couldn't be happier!), we signed with a realtor the very next day, and despite some drama at the house behind us that involved a love triangle and a car/house fire (and THAT is a story we'll save for another time! lol!), we sold our house in the very first weekend of back-to-back showings! Dogs (Rocco and Lucy) insisted we send you a pic of the "almost sold" sign b/c they're thrilled they'll be living in "Trisbee" land. : We're supposed to close in a couple of weeks.

Dave -
Read your post today and for some odd reason I thought back instantly to that time freshman year when I was sleeping over at your place and we wanted to drive that killer yellow station wagon your parents had, down to the Sev to grab some sodas and chips...as 14 maybe 15 year-olds. About the most rebellious thing I think we could think of doing that boring Saturday night. But we couldn't figure out how to turn off the damn hi-beams for the headlights!! I mean, who puts a foot button to do that anyway? But you know what...we figured it out. And then thickened-out of driving unlicensed to the Sev anyway.
So I wondered, why did that memory pop up into my head?

Jonathan Saxon | Jul 7, 2020
Just sending some love and positive vibes from the Saxons. You got this.

Marcelle Belisle | Jul 7, 2020
Staying positive and enlisting the support of family and friends are vitally important to your success! Sending positive thoughts your way, Dave!

Steven Paull | Jul 7, 2020
Thinking of you Lu!!! You have the right attitude as always. I know we haven't connected in many, many years, but I love you and am proud of your fight. Stay strong.

James Brunger | Jul 7, 2020
David, you got this! Brunger family is fully behind you...also, the arlington mass neighborhood is filled with PHD data scientists working every day on cures for all kinds of cancers. Let me know if you would like to hear from any of them. Lucky for you, I'm the dumbest dad in the neighborhood. The scientists are legit. Love to all of you and keep the faith.

Diane Jensen | Jul 7, 2020
Hi David - thinking of you all day as you start your treatment. Hang in there - you got this.

Eric Jayne | Jul 7, 2020
Stay strong, David; you got this! The Jaynes are pulling for you. Please let us know if you need anything. Eric, Lori, Ashley, and Thomas

Jamie Hecox | Jul 7, 2020
Lubitz! You got this! And a whole army ready to fight the fight with you! Lots of thoughts and prayers to you, Jennifer, and your entire family! ❤️

Sari Greene | Jul 7, 2020
Hi David - Thinking of you, Jennifer & your whole family. I'm sending tons of positive vibes!

Erin Childers | Jul 7, 2020
David, you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. You are very positive and strong and I believe that's the best first step! YOU GOT THIS!!! - Love, The Childers

Jackie Skandalls | Jul 7, 2020
Wish you the best with your treatment!

Jenna White | Jul 7, 2020
Wow David, wow. This is big for sure, but your grace, humor and good nature will serve you well in healing. Sending you love and energy for health!

Eric Rose | Jul 6, 2020
David,

Kirsten and I are standing strong with you, Jennifer, Natalie and the rest of the Lubitz clan. Now, go conquer that mountain sir!

Anna Hagstrom | Jul 6, 2020
David and family,
When we moved to the neighborhood six years ago you and your family were among our first friends here. Your friendship and kindness mean a lot to us.
You are all in our thoughts!
Stay strong and keep fighting!
Let us know if there is anything we can do at any time!

Ryan Poirier | Jul 6, 2020
Fight, fight, fight for David,
Honor now his name again,
Push up the score, keep on fighting for more.

For Maryland, GO LEHPHS!
And we will fight, fight, fight for David,
Keep on fighting 'til we win.
So sing out our song as we go marching along,
To victory!!!

Wendy Himmel | Jul 6, 2020
We will climb this mountain with you one step at a time...

with lots of love, Wendy and Michael

Andrew Engel | Jul 6, 2020
Hi David, I wanted to let you know I have been thinking about you a lot. I know you have what it takes to beat cancer. You did it before and you can do it again. I am sending positive vibes your way. Please let me know if there is anything I can do to help. My cell phone number is 443-602-2683.

Linda Florence | Jul 6, 2020

Hi David,

I remember the first time I stepped on the trading pad in the lobby at Fidelity to make my first trade—it was momentous! Every journey begins, as you well know, with that small step.

I'm cheering you on as you did me, my friend.

All the best,

Linda

WEEK 1 QUOTE

"the experienced Mountain climber is not intimidated by a mountain-he is inspired by it. The persistent winner is not discouraged by a problem-he is challenged by it. Mountains are created to be conquered, adversities are designed to be defeated; problems are sent to be solved"

The Meyerpeter Family | Jul 6, 2020

David, take care and family love and support. We are here for you. We are cheering you on. You've got this! Good luck on your trip and all around!
